

CALL FOR ARTISTS:
VISUAL ART FOR EXHIBITION
AT THE MUSEUM OF FLIGHT

DEADLINE: MARCH 10, 2023

ABOUT:

Calling all Pacific Northwest artists! The Museum of Flight (Seattle, WA) is seeking submissions of existing visual artwork that is conceptually connected to flight, space-travel or content within the Museum's Collection for an exhibition in the historic William E. Boeing Red Barn, the birthplace of the Boeing Airplane Company.

On June 10, 2023 The Museum of Flight will boldly depart from its traditional flightpath to host a museum-wide, community-focused celebration connecting the region's vibrant arts scene with its rich aerospace history. Art+Flight will exhibit artwork in all mediums, plus offer interactive mural painting, music, dance and plenty of family activities. Guest speakers and engaging community events will regularly enhance the celebration through January 7, 2024.

This portion of the exhibition will be in Room 1 within the William E. Boeing Red Barn, which is part of The Museum of Flight's Collection and seamlessly integrates into the footprint of the Museum.

The location offers a warm, rustic appeal with its historic wooden architecture.

Artwork in a variety of media, except for the materials listed below, will be considered for the exhibition. The Museum will provide exhibition cases for artwork and installation services as appropriate for the material and artwork type.

You can view The Museum of Flight's Collection online or visit in person at 9404 E. Marginal Way South, Seattle, WA.
